

Reference Object “La Clairière in Reims/France”

External thermal insulation composite system (ETICS) and basement ceiling insulation with insulation materials made of Neopor®

- BASF is partner of the social housing company “Le Foyer Remois”
- Participation in the new construction of a house with 13 low-energy-standard housing units
- Year of construction: 2010
- Consumption: 15 kWh/ m²a (passive house standards)
- External thermal insulation composite system (ETICS) and basement ceiling insulation made of Neopor®
- Triple-glazed windows
- Heat exchanger uses geothermal energy for ventilation system
- Solar cells generate energy for hot water supply

